

We warranty our filters' parts and workmanship for a lifetime. Our vendors only warranty the finishes such as chrome, powder coating etc. for a year. And the expendables like the gaskets we do not cover.

For example, say a customer drops his/her filter on the ground, we do not cover that, but if something were to go wrong with the filter itself as far as workmanship and parts (like the retaining spring) we will cover that.